

Reema Kanzaria was born and raised in Camden County, NJ. She graduated from University of Maryland in 2003 with a BA in Government and Politics. In 2007, Reema graduated Pace University School of Law with a JD. She practiced law for several years in areas of bankruptcy, commercial real estate and corporate law.

Currently, Reema volunteers as a Court Appointed Special Advocate, with CASA of Atlantic and Cape May Counties. She is also a Board Member of Atlantic County Collaborative for Educational Equity. During the 2019/2020 school year, Reema served as the Secretary of the PTO.

In 2018, Reema moved to Linwood with her husband, Mitul and two children, Dev and Vera. As a family, they enjoy beaches in the summer, skiing in the winter and traveling every chance they get.