5th Grade SPEAK Curriculum Map

Digital Storytelling Unit

Weeks 1-4

Essential Questions	Knowledge and Skills Targeted	Projects/Assessments	Resources	Standards

What is a fable?

What is my conflict and resolution?

What is my moral?

How can I use elements of a fable to create a modern fable?
	• Discover the elements of a fable.

	• Discover the purpose of a moral in a fable.

	• Organize ideas using graphic organizer.

	• Identify a current and relevant conflict, resolution and moral for fable.

	• Use writing process to write modern day fable.
		• View/read examples of fables

		• Compare/discuss examples

		• Define elements of a fable

		• Play Name That Moral

		• Writing Process

		   o Graphic organizer
		   o Rough draft
		   o Teacher conference
		   o Peer Edit
		   o Revise o Final draft
			Internet:
			Storycove.com

			Books:
			Favorite Fairytales and Fables Dalmatian Press

			Fables by Arnold Lobel

			Others:
			Student examples from previous classes

			What is a Fable? PowerPoint

			Name That Moral Game PowerPoint

			Screencasts: How to animate in PowerPoint
				RL.5.2, 5.3, 5.5, 5.6, 5.7, 5.9

				W.5.3, 5.4, 5.5, 5.6

				SL.5.5, 5.6

				L.5.1, 5.2, 5.3

				8.1

Weeks 5-9

Essential Questions	Knowledge and Skills Targeted	Projects/Assessments	Resources	Standards
How can I use technology to bring my fable to life? How can I use my voice to bring my fable to life?	• Discover how to use PowerPoint to create animation. • Discover how to use PowerPoint to create narrate your animation.	• Use fable to create background slide in PowerPoint • Use fable to animate fable in PowerPoint • Use fable to narrate animation in PowerPoint • Rubric • Show final project to class	PowerPoint Screencast: How to animate in PowerPoint Screencast: How to narrate in PowerPoint	RL.5.2, 5.3, 5.5, 5.6, 5.7, 5.9 W.5.3, 5.4, 5.5, 5.6 SL.5.5, 5.6 L.5.1, 5.2, 5.3 8.1